EDWARD C. NORTHWOOD is the resident U.S. attorney in the Toronto Office of the firm. He concentrates his practice in U.S. domestic and international tax matters involving estate planning, family business planning, charitable planned giving, trust and estate administration, and executive compensation. Mr. Northwood is a frequent lecturer and has presented papers relating to cross border planning issues for the Canadian Chapter of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (“STEP”), the American College of Trust & Estate Practitioners (“ACTEC”), the Canadian Bar Association (“CBA”), the American Law Institute - American Bar Association (“ALI-ABA”), the New York State Bar Association (“NYSBA”), and The Canadian Tax Foundation. He is a Fellow of ACTEC, an academician of The International Academy of Estate and Trust Law, a member of the Toronto Estate Planning Council, and a member of the Toronto branch of STEP, where he serves on the Board of Directors.

Mr. Northwood practiced for over 25 years with Hodgson Russ LLP, and for several years served as the tax partner resident in that firm’s Toronto office.

Mr. Northwood received his J.D. degree, cum laude, from the Law School of the State University of New York at Buffalo, an MA degree from the State University of New York at Albany, and his undergraduate degree from Brown University.

Mr. Northwood’s practice is limited to U.S. law.
